

FREE Training

Domestic Violence, Stalking & Sexual Assault in Later Life: Investigation, Intervention & Collaboration

Thursday, March 21, 8:00 - 5:00

La Plata County Fairgrounds Exhibit Building, Durango

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Law Enforcement Officers and Detectives
Emergency Responders
Prosecutors & Prosecution Investigators
Adult Protection Service Case Managers
Faith-Based Community Representatives

Elder Services Providers
Victim Advocates
Physicians
Legal Advocates
Bankers

PURPOSE

Both new and experienced professionals will enhance their knowledge, skills and ability to respond to cases involving domestic violence, stalking, and sexual assault against older adults.

TRAINING GOALS

Participants in this workshop will learn to:

- understand the dynamics of domestic violence, stalking, and sexual assault in later life,
- more effectively investigate elder abuse,
- identify forms of co-occurring abuse,
- more appropriately respond to older victims, and
- develop community collaborations to more effectively respond to elder abuse.

FOR MORE INFORMATION

For more information, contact Project Coordinator Linda Loflin Pettit, Denver City Attorney's Office, 720.913.4979, linda.loflinpettit@denvergov.org or Donna Bailey, Executive Director, Violence Prevention Coalition of Southwest Colorado, 970-247-2935, director@violencepreventioncoalition.org.

SCHEDULE & TRAINING TOPICS

7:30	Registration	Morning
8:00	Class begins	Dynamics of Elder Abuse, Domestic Violence,
12:00	Lunch (on your own)	Stalking, and Sexual Assault in Later Life
1:15	Return to class	Afternoon
5:00	Class ends	Dynamics That Impact Investigations, Better Assisting Older Victims, Collaboration

This one-day training is FREE to attend. Lunch will not be provided.

MEET THE TRAINING TEAM

Detective Dave Belue, Denver Police Department

Dave is a 30-year law enforcement veteran and has provided extensive training on elder abuse, stalking and domestic violence. He recently served as the lead negotiator in hostage situations and currently works on a fugitive task force.

Marley Bordovsky, Denver City Attorney's Office

Marley is an Assistant City Attorney and former Assistant District Attorney in the 2nd and 13th Judicial Districts. She has prosecuted cases of as domestic violence, stalking, drugs, robbery, assault, sexual assault, attempted murder, and homicide in both rural and urban parts of the state.

Jessica Naberhaus, Adult Protective Services

Jessica is a Senior Social Caseworker and serves as the Mountain Region Representative on the National Adult Protective Services Association Board of Directors. She is also a trainer with the National Clearinghouse on Abuse in Later Life.

Linda Loflin Pettit, Denver City Attorney's Office

Linda is the Coordinator of the Justice Program for Older Adults, has extensive experience training on domestic violence issues, and is a trainer with the National Clearinghouse on Abuse in Later Life.

Melissa Drazen-Smith, Denver City Attorney's Office

Assistant Director, Prosecution and Code Enforcement Section, former Assistant District Attorney in the 18th Judicial District. She has experience prosecuting cases of sexual assault, stalking, drugs, domestic violence, robbery, assault, sexual assault, attempted murder, and homicide.

REGISTRATION FORM

Seating is limited; register today!

E-mail registration to linda.loflinpettit@denvergov.org.

Name: _____

Title: _____

Agency Name: _____

Phone: _____ E-mail: _____