

Please join us for two upcoming events:

Back by popular demand and in partnership with the Pine River Library

WHAT'S NEW AND TRUE
An Explanation of the Election Process in La Plata County
Thursday May 31, 6:00 pm
Pine River Library
395 Bayfield Center Drive, Bayfield, Colorado
970-884-2222

Tiffany Parker, La Plata County Clerk & Recorder, will explain an entire election cycle, from registration through primaries, voting, and vote counting. There will be time for questions, and you will have an opportunity to examine the new voting equipment that will be in use this year. If you have ever wondered about the accuracy, validity, or safety of our elections, come hear and see for yourself what is really happening.

---

AND

---

The Primary Election will be held on June 26 in which voters registered with each party will choose their party's candidates for the November general election. This year, voters registered "Unaffiliated" can participate and vote in the primary.

We are hosting a forum for the only contested office in our local primary elections, the La Plata County Treasurer's office in the Democratic Primary.

Primary Election Forum – County Treasurer
Candidates: Allison Aichele and Tim Walsworth
Thursday, June 7 at 5:30 pm
La Plata County Fairgrounds – Extension Building
2500 Main Avenue, Durango, Colorado

We welcome you to attend this forum to learn more about the candidates and bring your questions. Ballots for the primary election will be mailed the week of June 11.

Please visit the Elections page at www.co.laplata.us for information about registration, polling places, ballot drop boxes and more.